---	-----------------------------------	--	---------

The programmes are professional in nature, they require approval from the concerned Statutory Councils. Any other professional programme also requires approval from the concerned Statutory Councils. It will be the sole responsibility of your Institution to seek prior approval from the concerned statutory Councils/regulatory bodies, wherever required.*

A. The recognition to above programmes is subject to the compliance of the following by the University.

- i. The University will provide extensive training to the Distance Education Faculty, the Co-coordinators and Academic Counselors in ODL pedagogy and practices with the help of STRIDE, and concerned Faculty from various Schools of Indira Gandhi National Open University.
- ii. The University shall follow the self learning methodology in preparation of the courseware and will improve its SLM as per ODL pedagogy.
- iii. The admission to MBA, MCA programmes should be done with adequately developed entrance examination for the purpose.
- iv. The University should implement the Sixth Pay Commissions recommendations of the UGC and focus on the faculty development programmes and ensure that all faculty members should either NET/SLET passed or Ph.D in relevant subjects.
- v. The university should constitute an advisory board for the Directorate of Distance Education with a representative of DEC as its member.
- vi. The territorial jurisdiction for offering programmes through distance mode shall be the Uttarakhand state for the university as per the notification of UGC and as per DEC norms.
- vii. The university should refrain from franchising of study centers in any part of the country or abroad.

B. The University/Institution may note that:

1. The Institution will offer only such programmes through distance mode which are offered by the Institution through regular face-to-face mode and approved by the Distance Education Council as mentioned in this letter. The Institution will not offer any other programme through distance mode other than those approved by the Distance Education Council.
2. Programmes, if any, in the areas of Health, Nursing, Dentistry, Management, Computers and allied areas may be offered with the approval of the statutory councils/regulatory bodies, wherever required.
3. It will be the responsibility of the Institution to follow the norms prescribed by the regulatory bodies, and seek their approval, wherever required.
4. The nomenclature of the programmes should be strictly as prescribed by the UGC/AICTE and approved by the Distance Education Council.
5. The eligibility conditions and duration of programmes will be as per the DEC norms and for professional and technical programmes as per the norms laid down by the AICTE. No admission to MBA, PGDBM and MCA programmes can be done without ensuring that the student has secured a valid score in the entrance test examination for this purpose.
6. The Institution shall limit admission to maximum 60 seats per programme per Study Centre for Management, Computer & IT, and Allied Health Sciences programmes, if any. For laboratory/Practical work, the institution can have a maximum of 30 students in a batch subject to maximum 60 students per Study Centre. The Study Centre be owned by the University and should be opened with the approval of EC/BOM of the University concerned.
7. The Institution should have at least one full time faculty member exclusively for coordinating each programme at the Headquarters.
8. The territorial jurisdiction for offering programmes through distance mode will be as per the decision taken in the 35th Meeting of the Distance Education Council. In its 35th meeting the Council noted that distance education and online education cannot have the Territorial

2/3

Jurisdiction. In case of Central Universities and the State Universities, the Territorial Jurisdiction will be as per their Acts and Statutes for offering programmes through distance mode. The Territorial Jurisdiction in case of Deemed Universities will be as per UGC, which mandates the prior approval of the UGC for opening Centres / off Campus Centres outside the Headquarters. The Territorial Jurisdiction in case of Private Institutions (other than Universities) will be as decided by the Joint Committee, which has decided that the territorial jurisdiction for the institutions (both private as well as Govt funded) shall be the Headquarters, and in no case outside the State.

9. The territorial jurisdiction for offering programmes through distance mode by your institution shall be the head quarters of the University as per the notification of the UGC and as per DEC norms.
10. The Distance Education Council prohibits franchising of Study Centres. Thus, your institution will not franchise any Study Centre in any part of the country or abroad.
11. The Institution's management of the distance education programmes will be open for review and inspection from time to time by DEC to provide inputs for further improvement or as deemed necessary. The academic norms of the programmes shall be under monitoring and regulation by the concerned regulatory authorities.
12. For Management and Computer Science programmes, the Institution should also note that:
 - The programme should have a mandatory internship of six months;
 - Institute/University concerned should seek accreditation from National Board of Accreditation as per prevailing rules;
 - Institute/University concerned should have concerned Department and the conventional universities should have on campus programme on offer;
 - Institute/University concerned should not have advertised for the programmes before receiving the approval letter;
 - Institute/University concerned should disclose, on line, in public domain the details of the student admitted, centre-wise, as per the format to be prescribed by AICTE;
 - Institute/University concerned should ensure delivery of the course material on-line with in one year of the date of approval.

It may be noted that before launching the programme the Institution should submit an affidavit within 30 days from date of issue of this letter that it agrees to and will abide by all terms and conditions contained in this letter. In case, the DEC does not receive the affidavit within 30 days from date of issue of this letter, the approval accorded to your Institution will be considered as withdrawn. Further, if it is found that the Institution is flouting any norms, then the recognition accorded to your Institution will be withdrawn without any notice.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,

Vikas Gupta
